The Ardmoreite for the News

in Re Judge Raymond.
Washington, March 23.—Thomas H. Owen and William Mellette of Ardmore, I. T., have arrived in Washington in connection with the charges against Judge Raymond, of the territory United States court. Charges were made some time ago against the judge, and are still in course of investigation, despite the fact that the representative of the department of justice sent to the territory was suddenly stricken and has not been rational since.

Mr. Owen was the secretary of the citizen's committee which assailed the representative of the department of justice in making the examination of witnesses who told of the allegations against Judge Raymond. Mr. Mellette is district attorney in the judge's court, his coming here to be examined as to the facts involved is considered of some significance. Judge Russell, assistant attorney general, has the typewritten report of the testimony taken in the case by the representative of the department.

Mr. Mellette was with Judge Russell this morning for some time and it is understood was questioned closely about testimony now before the department. Mr. Owen had a lengthy interview with the assistant attorney general, and submitted some additional affidavits concerning the action of Judge Raymond in seeking to be made a delegate to the last republican national convention. These affidavits make allegations of undue pressure and use of his position in the political fight at that time.

The Salvation Army.

Oklahoma City, Ok., March 23.—Commissioner George Kilby, in command of the department of the West, will visit Oklahoma City Friday, March 31, and will speak in the First M. E. church, Fourth and Robinson streets, at 8 p. m. Keeping pace with the onward and upward march of the Salvation Army in the United States General Booth recognizing the fact that a country so large, with such a multitude of claims devolving upon one in charge of the same, decided upon a division of responsibilities and therefore has two headquarters, one for the Eastern department at New York, and one for the West at Chicago. Commander Miss Eva Booth being in supreme command of the country and the Eastern part in particular. Commissioner Geo. Kilby, commander of the department of the West. It is expected that a number of leading officers will accompany the commissioner on his visit to this city, including Lieutenant-Colonel Addie and Major Dublin of the Kansas City headquarters.

All the officers at the different corps in Oklahoma and Indian Territory are expected to be present, as also a host of soldiers and friends.

Commissioner Kilby is a veteran in the service, having been an officer for more than twenty years. His last command was South Africa where he displayed great courage and tact and resourcefulness in guiding affairs through a crucial period as a result of the Boer war.

Mark the time and place, Friday, March 31, First Methodist church, Oklahoma City.
